

New-York

VOL. XXVII., NO. 8,207.

EUROPE.

THE WAR RUMORS.

DECLARATION OF THE MONTEUR.

PARIS, July 29.—The Moniteur this morning declares that the rumors of war which now prevail on the Continent are without foundation. It says that the existing relations of France with all the European powers are eminently peaceful. It denies that the formation of new military camps is contemplated, and says the reserves of artillery and cavalry horses are to be sold to the farmers in the Department.

ENGLISH OPINION.

LONDON, July 29.—Noon.—The sincerity of the reported details put forth in the Monteure of the war news now current in Europe, is doubted here. The London Times in its city article this morning is of the opinion that the alarm created by these warlike rumors will have the effect to check trade generally until next Spring.

HUNGARY.

THE HONVEDS.

VIENNA, July 29.—It is denied that the Hungarian national military organization, known as the Honveds, or National Guards, is to be reestablished. Though several meetings of the Honveds of 1848 have recently been held in Hungary with the object of affecting a reorganization, no action has yet been taken by either the Austrian or Hungarian Government to that end.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

LIVERPOOL, July 29.—The steamship Alpena, Captain, and Erie, Capt. Tabbetts, which left New-York the 15th inst., has arrived.

QUEBEC, July 29.—The Indian steamship City of Erie, Capt. Kinney, which sailed from New-York on the 26th inst., touched at the port-to-day and proceeded her voyage to Liverpool.

ST. JOHN'S, July 29.—The steamship Britannia, Capt. and, which left New-York on the 1st of July, has arrived in the Clyde.

SOUTHAMPTON, July 29.—Noon.—The steamer Northern Light, Capt. Jones, from New-York July 15, arrived here yesterday, en route to Bremen.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

LONDON, July 29.—Noon.—Consols for money, 23; United States Five Twenty bonds, 72; Illinois Central Railway, 36; Erie Railway shares, 42; Atlantic and Great Western Railway consolidated bonds, 22.

Afternoon.—Consols have advanced 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ cent, and are quoted at 24 $\frac{1}{2}$ for money. United States Five-Twenty are 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ cent higher, and are quoted at 72 $\frac{1}{2}$. Erie Railway shares have declined $\frac{1}{2}$ cent, and are quoted at 48. Illinois Central Railway shares are steady at 36.

Evening.—Consols closed steady at 24 for money. American securities closed buoyant at the following rates: United States Five Twenty Bonds, 72 $\frac{1}{2}$; Illinois Central Railway Shares, 36; Erie Railway shares, 42; Atlantic and Great Western Consolidated Bonds, 22.

LIVERPOOL, July 29.—Noon.—The estimated rates today are 10,000 bales. Middling Uplands, 16d.; middling Orleans, 10d.; Broadbaits are excited. Corn at 3 New. Wheat, 12d. for White California. Oats, 4d. Barley, 5d. Peas, 4d. Lard, 6d. Choose, 5d. Beef, 2d. Pork, 5d. Bacon, 4d. Pot Ashes, 3d. Rosemary, 3d. Flaxseed, 1d. Spirits Turpentine, 3d. Petroleum-Spirits, 2d. Lamp-Spirits, 2d. Refined 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. Tallow, 4d. Cloves, 4d. Cinnamon, 4d.

Afternoon.—There is no change in the quotations of cotton. Bacon has advanced to 4d. for Cumberland and Middlesex. Standard White Petroleum has advanced to 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. each.

Evening.—Cotton closed at the following au horized quote:—Middling Uplands, 16d.; middling Orleans, 10d.; the sales of the day foot up 13,000 bales. The market closed quiet. Corn, 25d. Oats, 4d. Barley, 5d. Peas, 4d. Pork, 7d. and Beef 14d. Pot Ashes, 3d. Rosemary, 3d. Flaxseed, 1d. Spirits Turpentine, 3d. Petroleum-Spirits, 2d. Tallow, 4d. Cloves, 4d.

Afternoon.—There is no change in the quotations of cotton. Bacon has advanced to 4d. for Cumberland and Middlesex. Standard White Petroleum has advanced to 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. each.

Evening.—Cotton closed at the following au horized quote:—Middling Uplands, 16d.; middling Orleans, 10d.; the sales of the day foot up 13,000 bales. The market closed quiet. Corn, 25d. Oats, 4d. Barley, 5d. Peas, 4d. Pork, 7d. and Beef 14d. Pot Ashes, 3d. Rosemary, 3d. Flaxseed, 1d. Spirits Turpentine, 3d. Petroleum-Spirits, 2d. Tallow, 4d. Cloves, 4d.

Afternoon.—There is no change in the quotations of cotton. Bacon has advanced to 4d. for Cumberland and Middlesex. Standard White Petroleum has advanced to 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. each.

Evening.—Cotton closed at the following au horized quote:—Middling Uplands, 16d.; middling Orleans, 10d.; the sales of the day foot up 13,000 bales. The market closed quiet. Corn, 25d. Oats, 4d. Barley, 5d. Peas, 4d. Pork, 7d. and Beef 14d. Pot Ashes, 3d. Rosemary, 3d. Flaxseed, 1d. Spirits Turpentine, 3d. Petroleum-Spirits, 2d. Tallow, 4d. Cloves, 4d.

Evening.—Sugar and Iron steady at opening quote. Some Linsced Cakes firm at 25 $\frac{1}{2}$. Other articles unaltered.

BY STEAMSHIP.

The steamship Bremen, from Southampton July 17, and the City of Boston, from Liverpool July 27 and Queenstown July 18, arrived here yesterday. They have received, by these steamers, four days' arrival news.

FLORENCE.

ITALIAN OPINION OF MAXIMILIAN'S EXECUTION.—THE PLANS OF GARIBOLDI.—THE CHURCH PROPERTY BILL.—IMPORTANT DEBATE IN THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES.

From Our Special Correspondent.

FLORENCE, July 17, 1867.

The execution of Maximilian forms the chief topic of leading articles. Unfortunately the news announcing his liberation led the democrates to exalt the generosity of republicans to the skies; the moderates were obliged, sulkily, to acknowledge the virtue of their adversaries, and no tables are turned. On the whole, the public recognises that Juarez has dealt strict justice, but himself simply human, and acknowledges that he let the usurper go free, he would have been superhuman, not to say divine.

Garibaldi is naturally exceedingly annoyed at the absurd attempt made to cross the Roman frontier. It is quite true that he remains on the Continent in the hopes of assisting in the solution of the Roman question; that he had given arms and money, this Mazzini had also sent in arms; but the programme was that the Romans should commence, and that the Italians outside should assist them by means of a "second" "Marsala expedition." But too many were led by the street, and a few "moderates" led by an ex-Minister, to believe that the local corps for themselves, and failed. Garibaldi's angry letter to the Gazette de Toulouse has raised a storm about him, but he declines that he, his sons, and friends intend to fight for the possession of the capital of Italy, and depend on it that he will keep his word.

The conduct of the Romans themselves is not encouraging. When Petruccioli della Gattina said that "sirap instead of oil" ran in his veins, it was not that the Italians protested again the right to be born, but that the French are gone, now that the Empire could not, by its own efforts, make itself master of the peninsula.

The debate on the Ecclesiastical property bill, now going on in the House, is one of the most, if not the most important ever had by the representatives of the nation and the House were divided into two distinct parties, because all had a common aim in view—the liberation of Naples, Sicily, Venice, the composition of Italian Unity—the only question was "How?" By resolution and immediately, it overcame the men of action—"by diplomacy, foreign alliance, and guided by opportunity," replied the speaker of the bill.

"Am I bound to answer the speech we have just heard from the right hon. member for Liverpool? I should have to take part in this discussion, but I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."

"I do not like to be called a traitor to my country, and the friends for whom I speak, for the sake of their freedom, have risked their lives for me."